THE WHITE HOUSE
WASHINGTON

MEMORANDUM OF TELEPHONE CONVERSATION

SUBJECT: Telcon with Carlos Menem President of Argentina on October 31, 1992 (Ø)

PARTICIPANTS: The President
Carlos Menem, President of Argentina
Interpreter: Patsy Arizu
Notetaker: Charles A. Gillespie/Roseanne
Hill

DATE, TIME October 31, 1992, 4:41 - 4:46pm EST
AND PLACE: Campaign Train Wisconsin

The President: Carlos. (U)

President Menem: George. How are you? (U)

President Bush: Como esta?-muy bien. I'm on the campaign trail in the State of Wisconsin. It's very nice of you to call. (U)

President Menem: I wanted to call you, George, and to tell you that all the Presidents of Latin America with whom I met recently are with you in the next election. We all expect you will have the greatest success. (U)

President Bush: Carlos, thank you, and I'll tell you -- things look better. The campaign is closing up, and I believe I'm going to win. I can't tell you how much I appreciate this phone call from a friend, a really good friend. (U)

President Menem: George, I want to say that our future depends on your triumph. You will triumph, and it will be our triumph, too. Please give my best regards to Barbara, and I want to send you a great big abrazo (embrace). (U)

President Bush: Carlos, thank you very much and once again let me tell you how much your call means to me. It's very encouraging and will help me push even harder, right down to the finish line. (U)

President Menem: George, I'll be calling you again Tuesday evening to congratulate you. I send you my greatest regards.
God bless you, your country, and your people. (U)

President Bush: Thanks again, I appreciate it, and now it's back to the campaign trail. (U)
